

THIS

CERTIFICATE

is awarded to

Niki Craveiro

for the completion of

Intravenous Therapy in Primary & Secondary Care

Date award achieved: 29th June 2022

The holder of this certificate has completed classroom-based training, achieving the below learning outcomes:

- ✓ Be able to define key terms associated with IV therapy
- ✓ Understand related legislation, accountability and consent
- ✓ Learn and demonstrate the procedure for IV attachment and Saline Lock in relation to ANTT
- ✓ Be aware of the procedure around administration and discontinuation of IV therapy
- ✓ Identify possible complications of IV therapy and appropriate nursing interventions, documentation, pharmacovigilance and escalation

No. CPD Hours: 3

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Iain Campbell'.

Iain Campbell RGN
Managing Director

Wren
Healthcare

Clinical Skills Academy

Wren Healthcare Clinical Skills Academy

csa@wrenhealthcare.co.uk | 0203 974 6950

The holder of this certificate has undertaken classroom theory-based training only. Competency assessment should be undertaken within the learner's clinical environment in order practice independently. Learners must work within scope of competency and maintain the knowledge and skills needed to practice effectively. In line with local policies, procedures, and applicable governing bodies prioritising patient safety and escalating areas of concern.